HARRISON'S WEDDING

Ceremony Was Performed Late Yesterday Afternoon.

HIS CHILDREN NOT PRESENT.

Only a Few Intimate Friends and Relatives Were Invited—Bride's Wedding Gown—Church Was Beautifully Decorated—Party Left Immediately For Mr. Harrison's Home in Indianapolis.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The marriage of Mrs. Mary Lord Dimmick, to General Benjamin Harrison was solemnized at St. Thomas church yesterday evening at 8:45. Dr. Wesley Brown, rector, officiated at the ceremony. The marriage which took place in the presence of 20 relatives and select friends of the bride and groom, was a very private affair. The edifice was not decorated in the lavish style that marked the nuptials of Miss Vanderbilt and Miss Whitney, the two most important weddings of the season; but the flowers used, lilacs and ascension lilies, were arranged in exquisite taste and the chancel looked even prettier and more effective than at the two previous weddings. Mrs. Dimmick arranged all the details regarding the decorations. The altar was relieved with palms, tropical plants and banks of white lilacs, surmounted with bunches of ascension lilies. On either side of the altar was placed a large vase of white lilacs.

General Harrison.

The guests as they arrived at the church were received by E. F. Tibbett, General Harrison's private secretary, and Daniel M. Ransdell, who was marshal at Washington during General Harrison's administration, and were seated in the front pews of the church.

At 5:30 Mrs. John F. Parker, the bride's sister, was escorted to the front pew on the left by Mr. Ransdell, and simultaneously Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot were escorted to the front pew on the right by Mr. Tibbett. Governor Morton, with his military secretary, occupied the pew directly behind Mrs. Parker and behind him sat Senator and Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mr. John W. Foster and Mr. George W. Boyd of the Pennsylvania railroad. In the pews behind Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot sat the bride's relatives and friends, Major and Mrs. Richard Parker, Chancellor and Mrs. McGill, the Misses Dimmick, Mrs. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Leeds, Mr. Norman Leeds, the Misses Leeds, Mr. and Mrs. Broughton, Miss Lambert, General and Mrs. Fitzjohn Porter and the Misses Porter.

Arrival at the Church.

General Harrison left the Fifth Avenue hotel accompanied by General Benjamin F. Tracey in a closed carriage at 5 o'clock and was driven to Rev. Dr. Brown's house on Fifty-Third street.

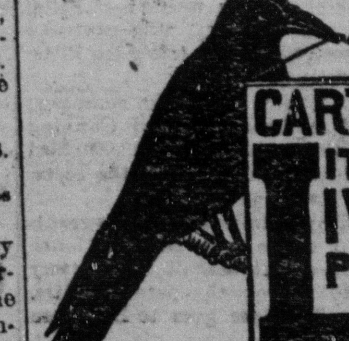

The bride left the home of her sister, Mrs. John F. Parker, at 5:10. She was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Lieutenant John F. Parker, who gave her away. They arrived at the church entrance at 5:40 and proceeded to the tower room where the bride and groom were waiting. The bride's procession was formed in the following order: Mr. E. F. Tibbett, Daniel M. Ransdell, Esq.; Mrs. Dimmick and Lieutenant Parker, and proceeded to the chancel where General Harrison, accompanied by his best man, General Tracey, received his bride. The ushers, standing to one side, faced the altar as the bride and groom stepped forward to the altar rail, where the rector, Dr. Brown, was waiting. George William Warren, organist of the church, playing the bridal music from Lohengrin, and during the entire ceremony playing very softly Mascagni's Intermezzo Cavalleria.

Services Were Short.

That portion of the matrimonial service known as the marriage service proper, the recital of which last only about 15 minutes, was used and immediately the blessing was pronounced. General and Mrs. Harrison, followed by Mrs. John F. Parker, General Tracey, Mr. Tibbett, Mr. Ransdell, Lieutenant Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot, walking down the aisle to the strains of the Tannhauser march of Wagner, and entering the carriage waiting at the entrance, the bride party was driven to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot, Grammersey park, where light refreshments were served and where the party donned travelling attire for the trip to Indianapolis.

Bride's Wedding Gown.

Mrs. Dimmick's wedding gown was of pearl gray grosgrain and silk. The skirt was plain with a short train falling from the waist in full, soft godets.

A Louis XVI coat, opening in front over a full vest of white chiffon, with broad revers, draped with rare, old honiton lace half a yard in width, extending down each side of the front and draped over the hips, forming a coat effect. The sleeves were long and full, tapering to the arm below the elbow and ending in a fall of lace at the wrist. Around the neck there was a plush collar of palest blue velvet, over which entwined a robe of magnificent pearls, fastened with a diamond clasp, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a large bouquet of lily of the valleys. The bonnet worn by the bride was a dainty French creation, composed of lace and blue velvet, with a white nightheld held in place by jewel pins.

Groom's Simple Attire.

The groom wore a well made Prince Albert coat, worn closely buttoned, with trousers of dark grey. White gloves and white silk four-in-hand tie completed the bridegroom's attire. He wore a boutonniere of the lily of the valley. General Tracey, who was attired in conventional afternoon style, wore a batonhole of lily of the valley and white violets and the ushers wore white violets. Mrs. John F. Parker, the bride's sister, carried an exquisite bouquet of catarayas orchids.

General and Mrs. Harrison left the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot at 7 o'clock and were driven to the Desbrosses street ferry, driving directly on board of the Pennsylvania ferryboat which left immediately for the depot where the bridal couple entered the private car of President Frank Thompson which was attached to the regular train leaving for Indianapolis at 7:50. Immediately after the train pulled out and Mrs. Harrison being joined by Lieutenant and Mrs. John F. Parker and General Tracey, who accompanied the bride party as far as Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison are expected to arrive in Indianapolis tonight.

Every Citizen of Lucas, Ia., Charged With "Bootlegging" Liquor.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., April 7.—The federal authorities at this place are taking steps which may place the entire town of Lucas, Ia., under indictments for bootlegging. Action is about to be taken on the statement of Frank Goggin, who was arrested a week ago on the charge of bootlegging. He has confessed, and furthermore has related a queer tale of the doings in the little village. According to his story, bootlegging is looked upon as a legally constituted profession by the residents. He says that everybody in the town is disposing of packages. He alleged that when a train stops at the station every citizen from the station master down, is on hand with the packages.

SILVER CITY, N. M., April 7.—Francis Schlatter, the healer, is now at Pleasanton, a small town in western Socorro county, having been several weeks in retreat among the Mexicans in the small ranch town in Socorro county performing cures. He says he does not know where his next stopping place will be. It is claimed several miraculous cures were performed at Pleasanton. Schlatter looks very much emaciated, but he claims to be in good health. He says he has just ended a fast of 40 days and 40 nights. From the route taken by him he will enter Arizona in the vicinity of Duncan.

The Prince Did Not Accept.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The board of manager of Thirteenth club have proffered charges against A. L. Rawson of Woodridge, N. J., who, it is said, recently palmed off on the club what purported to be a letter from Sir Francis Knollys, the private secretary of the Prince of Wales, in which the prince accepted honorary membership in the club, but which was in fact a garbled and altered letter declining that honor.

HOUSE ADOPTS THEM

Conference Report on the Cuban Resolutions Carried.

DISPOSED OF FOR THE PRESENT.

House Also Passes the River and Harbor Bill—Ugly Charges Made in the Senate During Discussion of the Postoffice Appropriation Bill—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The house yesterday adopted the conference report on the Cuban resolutions by a vote of 244 to 27 and passed the river and harbor bill under suspension of the rules, after a lively debate of 40 minutes, by a vote of 216 to 40. The report on the Cuban resolutions had been debated Friday and Saturday and the vote yesterday was taken immediately after the reading of the journal. Eighteen Republicans and nine Democrats voted against the report. After the most determined opposition of those opposed to the recognition of the insurgents in the senate and house there were but 10 more votes against the report than against the original resolutions. The former vote was 263 to 17. By its action yesterday the house agreed to the senate resolutions and disposes of the Cuban question for the present. These resolutions were as follows:

Resolved, That in the opinion of congress, a condition of public war exists between the government of Spain and the government proclaimed and for some time maintained by force of arms by the people of Cuba; and that the United States of America should maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers, according to each all the rights of belligerents in the ports and territory of the United States.

Resolved, Further, that the friendly offices of the United States should be offered by the president to the Spanish government for the recognition of the independence of Cuba.

The river and harbor bill, passed yesterday carries in actual appropriations $10,380,960 and authorizes contracts for 32 new projects with a limit of cost of $5,731,310.

Before the house adjourned the New Mexico bond bill was defeated and the bill to open the Assinabone military reservation was passed.

The Cuban resolutions will be officially brought to the attention of the president today by the secretary of the senate, who will present him with an official copy of the document. Ordinarily concurrent resolutions are not forwarded to the president, as they do not require his signature, but the resolutions will be laid before him as the Armenian resolutions were, because they express the opinion that he should tender the office of the United States to Spain for the recognition of Cuban independence and are therefore a direction to him in so far as congress can direct the president in such a proceeding.

POSTOFFICE APPROPRIATIONS.

Lively Debate and Ugly Charges Made in the Senate Chamber.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The senate spent the entire day on the postoffice appropriation bill, but did not complete it. The bill served to bring out some sharp criticisms of the postoffice department, and by Senator Allen on alleged irregularities. Mr. Allen repeated sensational charges as to large money contributions said to have been made in the interest of Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Harrison. The charge that Mr. Wanamaker contributed $400,000 toward Mr. Harrison's election led to an emphatic denial from Mr. Hawley. Mr. Allen alluded to the president as "his majesty" and the chief mugwump of the country. The vote on the postoffice bill is to be taken today.

Missionary Knapp's Case.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The state department has received word from Mr. Reed, the United States charge at Constantinople, to the effect that the Turkish government has no official knowledge of the attempt of the local authorities to expel Missionary Knapp from Bitlis. Minister Terrell, who is now in the city, has advised with the departmental officials as to the instructions to be sent to Mr. Reed for his guidance in the case.

THE STAR OF HOPE.

"I had lost all hope and gone to my father's to die," said Mrs. MARY EVANS, of Mendon, Corvett Co., Texas.

"I gave birth to a baby a year ago, she adds, 'and I felt very bad, my feet began to swell, my stomach was all wrong and I seemed to suffer with everything that could be borne. I was in bed 5 months and there was not a day that I could get up. I had palpitations and I took medicine until I felt as if life was worth living again.'"

"I weigh more than I have weighed for ten years. My friends say that I look better than they ever saw me. The first two bottles did me more good than all the medicine I had taken. I can eat anything I want and as much as I want. If you want to use this in favor of your medicine, I am a living witness to testify to it and will, to anybody who wants to know further of my case."

OHIO ELECTIONS.

City and Township Officers Chosen Yesterday.

CINCINNATI, April 7.—Exceptionally pleasant weather prevailed throughout Ohio yesterday for the municipal and township elections. Many women voted for members of school boards and some of that sex were elected, but the percentage of women voting was small. The returns show on the average Democratic gains over last fall when the state gave its largest Republican plurality. No political issues were at stake anywhere outside of the political control of local affairs.

Some towns and townships have gone Democratic for the first time since the presidential election of 1892. At Lima, the Democrats elected Dr. S. A. Baxter, the neighbor and friend of Senator Brier, mayor by 300, and one Republican and one Democrat of the city clerk and council. At Greenville the Democrats made gains, the ticket being divided. There was no election in Cincinnati, but the suburban returns show Democratic gains over last November.

At Hamilton, the home of ex-Governor Campbell, the vote was 2,000 short, the Democrats electing everything except one assessor, by average pluralities of 800. At Urbana the Republicans elected all by 400. At Warren, Elyria and Marysville, the Republicans elected their entire ticket. At Millersburg the Democrats elected their ticket on a very light vote. At Caldwell, a Republican assessor, the Democrats elected the mayor and city clerk, the Republicans getting the rest of the ticket. At Van Wert, for the second time in the history of that city, a Democratic mayor was elected by 150. The rest of the Republican ticket had an average plurality of 400.

At Wapakonetta, the Democrats elected the mayor and treasurer by 300. At South Charleston, the Democrats elected their first mayor and marshal. At Dayton a Democrat was elected mayor by five votes. The Republicans elected the rest of their ticket except water works trustee and secured control of council and school board. At Chillicothe and Madisonville the Republicans and Democrats elected the tickets equally.

At Circleville the Republicans made gains electing nine out of the 11 officers. At Troy, Piqua, Springfield, Findlay and London, the Republicans elected their entire tickets. At Wooster the Republicans elected most of their ticket and the Democrats secured control of the council. At Zanesville the Republicans suffered losses but elected their city ticket by pluralities of 100 to 100.

The election in Cleveland was for a school director, three members of the school council and eleven members of the city council. The Republicans elected all their candidates with the exception of one member of the city council by plurality of 7,000 and upwards. The Democrats will not have but three members of the city council out of 22, two of them being hold overs. The school council is solidly Republican. At Massillon the Democrats elected the mayor by 172, the remainder of the ticket being divided. At Alliance the Democrats reduced the usual Republican plurality of about 700 to less than 100 on all offices except mayor. The Republican candidate for mayor won by the usual margin. A combination ticket was elected at Ashabula, party lines being disregarded. The Republicans won at Fostoria.

At Youngstown the Republican candidate for mayor was defeated by 285, because of the charge that he affiliated with the A. P. A. The remainder of the Republican ticket was elected. At Delaware the Republicans elected all their candidates with the exception of township clerk. At Findlay the Republicans made a clean sweep, their candidate for mayor making a gain of 100 over the plurality last fall. The Republicans carry the city of Akron by a plurality 300 greater than one year ago, electing six members of the city council and five of six members of the board of education. The Democrats carried Sandusky, making small gains over last spring. At Fremont the Democrats made small gains. The Republicans won at Oberlin and Medina as usual. The Republicans made big gains at Bucyrus, electing the mayor, marshal and solicitor. At Tiffin the Democrats elected their ticket by a greatly reduced majority.

MAYOR SHOT AT.

Attempt Made to Assassinate the Head Official of Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, April 7.—Mayor Davis reported to the police last night that an attempt had been made to assassinate him in a dark street a short distance from his residence. An unknown man came upon him, he says, calling him an A. P. A. and applying a vile epithet, and fired at him at short range. The bullet passed through his hat. Mayor Davis reports that his assailant ran down an alley and he fired three shots at the man as he fled, none of which took effect. A short time afterward Mayor Davis appeared at a Republican mass meeting and exhibited the torn hat.

He was met at the outskirts of the new city by a brass band and the colony G. A. R. post and escorted to a stand in the heart of the newly laid out city, where he addressed an audience of 1,500 people composed almost entirely of new comers to the state. His sentiments of fraternity were liberally applauded.

After a red hot meeting the following delegates were chosen to the national convention: Thomas Burk of Fort Worth, and W. J. Fisher of Weatherford. Both are for McKinley. Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. It is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives of any remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed, everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

* The following plank in the National Republican platform adopted at the convention held at Minneapolis, Minn., in 1892, on the silver question, is good enough for any true American to stand upon, it seems to us:

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetalism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure a maintenance of the parity of value of the two metals, so that the purchasing and the debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal. The interest of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government shall be as good as any other. We commend the wise and patriotic step already taken by our government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

THE DOUBTFUL states this year are all in the "solid south."

THERE has been a constant deficit in national revenues ever since the Wilson bill went into effect.

THE REPUBLICAN city ticket for council is now full and the prospect of electing the entire ticket is good.

THE PUBLIC debt has increased under the present democratic administration instead of decreasing as it had done under previous republican administrations. That is good argument for a change.

AT NEARLY all of the republic-can conventions and gatherings

there is the greatest enthusiasm and a general expression of opinion to the effect that the republicans will win a great victory this fall and an easy one. The enthusiasm of the republican party is spontaneous and admirable, but it is just as well to keep in mind that the fight is going to be a hard one, and that every vote will be needed.

IT APPEARS that the single state of Georgia now has more manufactories than the whole south had in 1890. This is an illustration of the remarkable change that has been taking place in southern industries during the past thirty years. That section is no longer giving all of its attention to agriculture, but is reaching out for additional means of prosperity, in imitation of the North. As a consequence the idea of protection is growing in that section.

but nevertheless true, that the people blame the Democrat party for the hard times and that will and a great honor besides, to receive the compliment of the vote

THE CUBAN belligerency resolutions passed the house yesterday afternoon by a vote of 214 to 27.

The matter now rests with President Cleveland to whom the resolutions will be presented today. Says the Commercial Gazette: The United States has done, after long delay, what

Spain did promptly thirty days after the outbreak of her rebellion, and what England and France were swift to do. It has made formal recognition, as far as congressional action goes, of a state of belligerency. And this only after for nearly fourteen months the Spanish forces have failed to put down the rebellion;

only after nearly two hundred thousand troops have made vain effort; only after the ablest of spanish generals has been withdrawn for lack of success; only after the publication of the Weyler decrees of February have sent a thrill of horror and indignation through Christendom—or, at any rate, this country. England has been stirred by Armenian outrages as this country has been stirred by those in Cuba. England has failed to act; this country has acted. It has acted for the poor, the distressed, those cruelly treated and outraged;

whose offense is that they are trying to throw off a hard and oppressive yoke.

Those who are troubled with rheu-

A Railroad Official's Experience.

DR. MILES' HEART CURE restores health. It is a railroad official's experience. "My heart troubled me for 15 years. Shortness of breath was the constant and most common symptom. Intense, excruciating pain, generally followed by a severe exertion. Faintness, hunger without appetite, fluttering that made me clutch my breast, and palpitation that often staggered me as if I would fall, were frequent attacks. Again, everything would turn black if I arose from a stooping posture quickly. Sleepless nights with their protesting unrest were numerous and I could get no rest day or night. I consulted leading physicians and tried all the remedies they gave me no relief. One of Dr. Miles' circulars described my case so exactly that I took Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and I am now a well man. I hope every one troubled with heart disease will try Dr. Miles' remedies. If they will write me personally, I will gladly give them full details of my experience." EDW. EDMONDS, P. O. Box 65, David City, Nebraska.

The latest government geological report gives Indiana building stone high credit in the following paragraph: "Owing to the production of what is known as Bedford oolitic limestone, Indiana is widely known as the most important state in the union in the output of stone for building and ornamental purposes." The best strata of this stone are found in Lawrence, Huntington, Monroe, Decatur, Washington, Ripley, Owen, Clark, Franklin, Putnam and Wabash counties. The famous Van derbilt mansion of Fifth avenue, New York, was constructed of Bedford stone.

If a small bottle of Shaker Digestive Cordial does you no good, don't buy a large one.

"Provide all things; hold fast that which is good." It's not good for everybody, only for the thin, pale, sick, weak and weary. For those who are starving for want of digested food. For those who cannot get fat or strong, because their stomachs do not work as they ought to. These are the people, millions of them, whom Shaker Digestive Cordial will cure. Food makes strength, muscle, brain, blood, energy—after it is digested. If not digested, it will do you no good at all. Shaker Digestive Cordial helps your stomach to digest your food and cures indigestion permanently. When you've tried a small bottle, you can tell.

Cigarettes and Insanity.

Dr. Benjamin Blackford, the able superintendent of the Western State Hospital at Staunton, Va., in his annual report to the board of directors of that institution says:

"To a great extent the increase of insanity may be attributed to the personal cigarette habit, now so long prevalent among, and undermining the moral, physical and mental health of the youth of our country during the period of youth and development, when the brain is tender and plastic and easily affected by the noxious inhalations issuing through and around the nerve centers. His nervous organization is apt to become more shattered by the cigarette habit than if he were addicted to alcohol stimulation during that period of proberly, with its strains on the nervous system. The youth at college who burns the midnight oil is to be commended for his industry, but to often he burns out his brain at the same time with the accompanying cigarette. The process of waste and injury to the nervous system may be greater than the repair, and mental bankruptcy is the result."—Globe Democrat.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, man-factured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, Wait The Triumph Over Vivisection.

After working twenty hours a day for several weeks, spending some thousands of dollars and making use of 1,800 different chemicals, Thomas A. Edison has invented a device which actually does that which has been so earnestly hoped for from the Roentgen rays. He covers paper with crystals of tungstate of calcium. This makes the paper fluorescent. From the paper he manufactures something which looks like a pair of goggles. The operator puts these goggles upon his eyes. Then the Roentgen rays, by means of a vacuum tube and an electric machine, are turned full upon any part of the solid into which

A Plain Accident.

A friend of mine disappeared for three or four days recently, and when he made his reappearance he was horri- bly scratched and cut about the throat and face.
"Come in contact with a vigilance committee?" asked one of his acquaint- ances.
"No, not quite."
"Been trying to cut your throat with a garden rake?"
"No, not that either."
"Maybe you lost your razor and tried to eat your whiskers off with concen- trated lye?"
"No—bicycle. Ran over a dog, shoved my leg through a wheel and my head through a barbed wire fence."—San Francisco Post.

His Only Explanation.

Leaving Him to His Fate.

"John," she said, "there's a burglar trying to get in the house."
"Is there?" was the uninterested re- ply.
"Yes. Aren't you going to do some- thing about it?"
"No, Maria. I'm a humane man, but if that fellow falls over Johnny's tin wagon and steps into a toy drum and gets frightened by treading on a rubber doll that says 'papa' and barks his shin the same as I did when I came here in the dark tonight, it'll be all his own fault. I don't feel called on to in- terfere with my advice or to offer a helping hand, for it won't be a deserv- ing case."—Washington Star.

The Button Was On.

"Aha!" And he laughed feebly as he read from the morning paper, "The burglar shot at the man, whose life was saved by the bullet striking against a button of his clothes!"
"Well," snapped his spouse, "what of that?"
"What of that?" said he as he felt his collar going up steadily to the nape of his neck. "Oh, nothing, except that the button must have been on!"—New York World.

TALKING ON THE AIR

RECORD FOR LONG DISTANCE CON-VERSATION WITHOUT A WIRE.

How Ce-lotta Got an Amateur Balloonist Out of a Fix a Mile Up in the Air—Her Voice Reached Over Four Miles—Gas- bags Acted as Receivers.

Tales are plenty of long distances over which men's voices have been conveyed by the medium of placid water. An Adirondack guide tells of having talked in ordinary tones, on a very still day, with a companion 1½ miles distant at the other end of a lake, and another guide caps this story with one of yells which were heard and returned near a water extent of three miles. Those tales are quite outdone by a well authenti- cated story told by Carlotta, once the most famous woman balloonist in the world. In her story air, instead of wa- ter, was the medium, and the distance of the conversation was four miles. It took place above the outskirts of St. Louis some years ago.

"It was an aeronautic exhibition," says Carlotta in telling the story, "and a young man named White, who was inexperienced in ballooning, had agreed to make an ascension. I had already gone up and was quietly drifting east on an easy air current when he started out. He had had enough experience to know how to handle the valves and sandbags, and he intended to go up a mile or so and then descend easily. Now, the upper air is full of varying currents. You may be going due west at a half a mile altitude, and when you get up a few hundred yards farther you may strike a current that carries you due east. Mr. White checked his upward career in a west bound draft, so that when he finally drifted out of that cur- rent into mine we were a good long dis- tance apart."

"I always have a powerful glass with me when I make an ascension. When I turned this on him, I saw that he was in trouble. His balloon had twisted a little in such a way that I judged it was likely to twist more, and he was clambering around the ropes trying to right it, but without much apparent conception of what was best to do. I was frightened for him, for when the bag of a balloon turns too much the gas begins to escape rapidly, and the results are likely to be serious. I knew that voices could be heard a long way in the air, for I had often heard people a mile below me shouting, so without know- ing how far the two balloons were apart I decided to hail the other one. I gath- ered all my breath and shouted:
"Hello, hello, hello!"

"Then I turned my glass on the other balloon again. Up where the air is so clear as it is a mile above the earth one can see at great distances with won- derful distinctness. Through my glass I could see Mr. White start and look all around him. That was quite awhile after I had shouted. He didn't seem to un- derstand where the voice came from, but finally I saw him put his hands to his mouth, evidently making a speaking trumpet of them. I waited and waited and was just about to shout again when the huge gasbag above me began to thrill with sounds. They seemed to buzz along its sides and diffuse the air, only to collect and come whirling and rum- bling down the funnel to be poured into my ears, and they formed in a tone that seemed made up of a million other tones:
"Hello! Where—are—you?"

"It was the most peculiar sound I had ever heard. When it had scattered itself into silence, I took out my watch, and timing myself shouted:
"Throw out one sandbag. I'll come to you!"

"Forty seconds later my balloon be- gan to vibrate again, finally forming the words:
"All right. In trouble!"
"There was method in my telling him to throw out the sandbag, as it was afterward of use. I threw out a number myself, for I reckoned that a little above me I would find a current to carry me toward Mr. White. This I did and was soon within a short dis- tance of him, aerially considered. The trouble with his balloon was a slight disarrangement of the ropes, which I had myself experienced, so I told him what to do, and he was soon all right. As I explained to him when we reached the earth, we had been talking over an aerial telephone, the gasbags being the only material objects up there collect- ing all the sounds and acting as huge receivers."

"Well," said he, "you got me out of a very bad scrape, but I never was so scared in my life as when that voice surrounded me. I thought the balloon was talking, and that I had gone crazy."
"It was a pretty long talk," said I, "for, allowing the voice to travel five seconds to a mile by my timing, we must have been close to four miles apart."
"That's simply impossible," said he.
"Very well," I said. "That's why I told you to drop that sandbag. I threw some out, too, and we can find out how far they landed apart."
"It wasn't much trouble to find peo- ple who had found the bags and know just where they were. Fortunately they had landed near a railroad track, so the distance estimating was made easy for us. It was 4½ miles. I guess that is the record up to date for long distance talk- ing without a wire."

His Names.

A pair of twins was born in the Back Bay district. A bright boy set about to try to name them. He said, "Will they be called Peter and Repeater?" But no. His mother would not listen to the name Peter. Then he said, "Let them be called Max and Climax."
"No," she said. "They are both little girls, so we cannot name one of them Max."
Then he said after much thought, "Let them be called Kate and Dupli- cate." After that his head was band- aged, and he was sent out to play.—Union Signal.

MONROE DOCTRINE.

FACTS CONCERNING ITS ORIGIN AND WHAT IT SIGNIFIES.

First Suggested by an English Statesman. Submitted to Jefferson and Madison, Who Approved It—Never Received Congressional Affirmation.

It is a singular fact that the Monroe doctrine is of British origin. In 1823 George Canning, British foreign sec- retary of state, suggested that the United States government should take decided ground against interference by the "holy alliance" in Mexico and South Amer- ica, where the Spanish colonies had es- tablished their independence.

The "holy alliance" was a union of Austria, France, Prussia and Russia for the maintenance of the European mon- archies. It was formed soon after the Napoleonic wars and was renewed and strengthened in 1820, when uprisings occurred in several countries of Europe. Great Britain had been asked to join the combination, and some steps had been taken in that direction under Lord Cas- tleagh. On his death by suicide Canning became foreign minister, and un- der his guidance Great Britain held aloof from the continental alliance.

The United States had recognized the independence of Mexico and the other revolted Spanish colonies, and Canning was inclined to pursue the same course. In 1823 he suggested to Richard Rush, United States minister at London, that this government should express in a forcible manner its opposition to inter- vention by the European powers in be- half of Spain against its colonies which had rejected allegiance.

This suggestion was conveyed to Pres- ident Monroe through John Quincy Adams, the American secretary of state. President Monroe submitted the propo- sition of Canning to Jefferson and Mad- ison for their opinion on the subject. Jefferson's answer was prompt and de- cisive in favor of such a declaration as Canning had suggested. He said it was the most momentous question submitted for his opinion since the Declaration of Independence. Madison approved of Jefferson's opinion and equally appre- ciated the importance of the question.

Under these circumstances President Monroe, in his annual message Dec. 2, 1823, expressed the doctrine that has since borne his name. There had been some correspondence with Russia and Great Britain in regard to boundary treaties, which the president described, adding:

"In the discussions to which this in- terest has given rise, and in the ar- rangements by which they may termi- nate, the occasion has been judged prop- er for asserting as a principle in which the rights and interests of the United States are involved that at the American continent, by the free and independent condition which they have assumed and maintain, are by no means not to be considered as subjects of colonization by any European powers."

In the same message, referring to the insurrection in Europe, President Mon- roe said that the United States would always be anxious and interested spec- tators of events, but declared:

"In the mass of European powers in matters relating to themselves we have never taken any part, nor does it com- port with our policy to do so. It is only when our rights are invaded or seri- ously menaced that we resent injuries or make preparations for defense. With the movements in this hemisphere we are of necessity more immediately connected, and by causes which must be obvious to all enlightened and impartial observ- ers."

"The political system of the allied powers is essentially different in this respect from that of America. This difference proceeds from that which exists in their respective governments. And to the defense of our own, which has been acquired by the loss of so much blood and treasure, and matured by the wis- dom of their most enlightened citizens, and under which we have enjoyed un- exampled felicity, this whole nation is devoted. We owe it, therefore, to the candor and to the amicable relations exist- ing between the United States and those powers to declare that we should consider any attempt on their parts to extend their system to this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety. With the existing colonies or dependencies of any European government we have not interfered and shall not inter- fere. But with the governments that have declared their independence and maintained it, and whose independence we have on great consideration and on just principles acknowledged, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them, or controlling in any other manner their destiny, in any other light than as a manifestation of an unfriendly disposition toward the United States."

This is the Monroe doctrine: 1. No new European colonies in this hemi- sphere. 2. No interference with colonies of European powers now existing. 3. No interference by any European power with the affairs of any American nation. It is but justice to say that the vigorous language in which it is expressed evi- dently came from the able and castles- pe of John Q. Adams, secretary of state. John C. Calhoun was secretary of war in the same cabinet and approved the positions taken by the president.

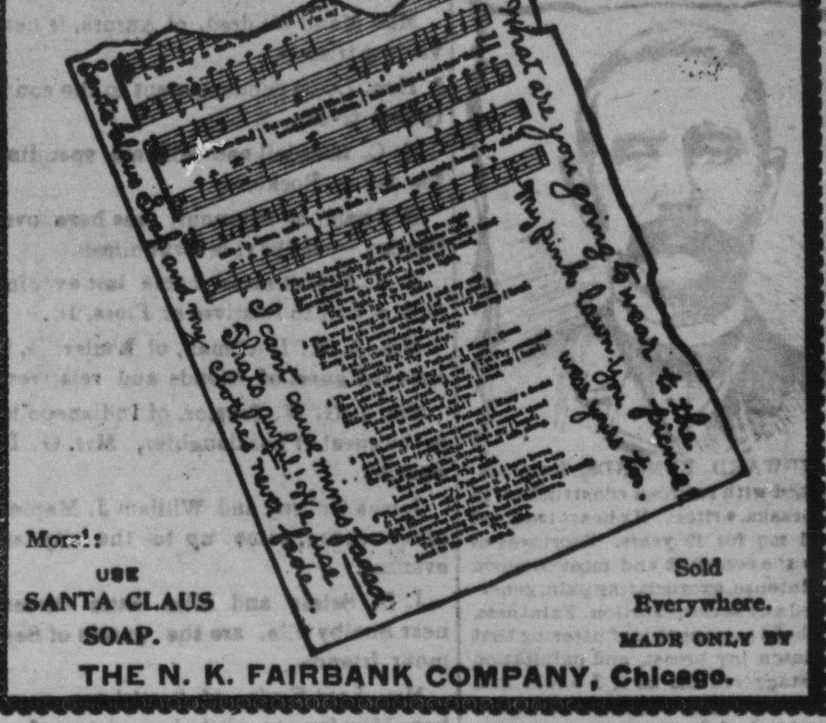

This doctrine never has been affected by congress. In fact, it has been re- affirmed repeatedly when resolutions were offered approving the acts of the government on the subject. But it has been reaffirmed by every administration since that of Monroe in one form or another. The vigorous declarations of Mr. Seward and the commencement of preparations for their enforcement drove France and Spain from Mexico and secured the re- establishment of the republic after the death of Maximilian. It is the doctrine of the American people and never will be abandoned.—Chicago Chronicle.
